The International Colloquium THROUGH THE LANDS OF THE AMERICAS, organized in Szeged as one of the pre-congress events of the 58th International Congress of Americanists to be held in Novi Sad (June 30 – July 4, 2025), will take travel as its central theme. Journeys from Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia to the Americas, as well as inter-American journeys over more than five centuries, provide an opportunity to reflect on various aspects of travel and to study its impact, repercussions and representations in later times up to the present, through a range of disciplines, including history, social and political sciences, literature, theater, cinema, linguistics, cultural history, digital and visual culture, ethnography, anthropology, migration and minority studies.
